FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:

Count 8: 18:641 THEFT OF GOVERNMENT PROPERTY

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

5 months on count eight (8) of an eight count indictment, followed by a term of 5 months of home detention. The term of home detention may include electronic monitoring, GPS, or automated identification systems as determined by the Probation Officer. Defendant shall observe all rules of such programs, as directed by the Probation Officer.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions:

1. Defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U.S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02;
2. During the period of community supervision, defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution.
3. Defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. Defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month as directed by the Probation Officer.
4. Defendant shall participate in Mental Health Treatment which may include evaluation and counseling until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider with the approval of the Probation Officer.

5. Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from herself.
6. Defendant shall participate for a period of five(5) months in a Home Detention Program which shall include electronic monitoring, GPS or voice recognition and shall observe all rules of such program as directed by the Probation Officer. Defendant shall maintain a residential telephone line without devices and/or services that may interrupt operation of the monitoring equipment.
7. Defendant shall pay the cost of Home Confinement monitoring to the contract vendor not to exceed the sum of $12.00 for each day of participation. Defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer.

It is so ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. It is also ordered that defendant shall pay to Federal Emergency Management Agency restitution of $21,549.51 during her supervised release period. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgements and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.

Pursuant to Section 5E1.2(e) of the Guidelines, all fines are waived, as it is found that defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine.

The Court recommends defendant to remain at the Metropolitan Detention Center.

The Court considers the sentence as stated to be reasonable given consideration of the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553, including: under factor (a)(1), the nature of the crime committed and the defendant's criminal history; under factor (a)(2)(A), the need for the sentence to promote respect for the laws and sufficiently and justly punish the defendant for this serious offense; under factor (a)(2)(B), the need for the sentence to impress upon defendant and others the seriousness of her offense and deter her, specifically, and others, generally, from committing the same crime; and under factor (a)(2)(C), the need for the sentence to protect the public from further crimes of the defendant.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
